i'm sorry.
i can't write the words.
i've tried for hours.

i could say "i love you!"
but that wouldn't convey all the things that i feel
in the depths of my heart.

Seniors

for those who have shared thirteen years of emotion anyone who has played a part in my life

the words just won't come they won't form in my mind, so with dickens i'll say ''it was the best of times.''

As I leave this school, I look back upon the many memories which I have had throughout my four years of high school. I want to express my sincere thanks to my parents, teachers, classmates, and friends for their help in putting together, what has been a year of success, into this yearbook. I am sure that I, and many others, will remember the times of fun and laughter, and also the hardships which we have gone through together by looking through this book later in life.
